Julian's parents, Bernadino and Lisa Pavone, said the trip would have been a difficult one for their son, so they made arrangements with the show to broadcast video footage of Julian's performances instead.

"Obviously, we were very flattered by this prestigious invitation, but this would have been a difficult trip for Julian (who is now four years old). He has commitments to his music school and will be performing at several other events. This is tremendously exciting for Julian and our entire family," said Lisa Pavone.

Julian, who has made headlines around the world, has appeared on 29 TV shows, including "The Oprah Winfrey Show", "Good Morning America", "Martha Stewart", "Inside Edition", "MSNBC", "WGN", "FOX News Dayside" and "Good Company". He has also starred in a television show pilot, "Finding Julian's Band" and was featured in a Korean documentary produced by Seoul ... /50% unread/
