From Motown to Seoul Town, Julian Pavone, 'The World's Youngest Drummer', to be Featured in a Korean Documentary

Tuesday March 20, 10:00 am ET

DETROIT, March 20 /PRNewswire/ -- A production crew from South Korea, on behalf of Seoul Broadcasting Systems (SBS), just completed three days of filming for a documentary about Julian Pavone, a drumming prodigy. "Extraordinary World" of SBS is Korea's most popular reality based documentary program that maintains approximately 20% of ratings, showcasing people with extraordinary skills. This particular documentary will cover Julian's life in and outside his home. It will feature his extraordinary musical talents, interviews with his family and friends, a live jam session at Detroit's Harmonie Park Recording Studio, training at Master Willie Adams' Southfield Martial Arts Institute, and interviews with professional musicians and industry experts including: Ralph Armstrong, William Winfield III, Steve Badalament, Brian Pastoria, Mark Pastoria (2-time Grammy Award Winner), Michael J. Powell (4-time Grammy Award Winning Producer), Rickie Thornton, Enzo P. (Julian's dance instructor), and more. The documentary is scheduled to air this April throughout Korea.

Just two years old, Julian continues to reach milestones that artists well into their professional careers rarely achieve. This February he was honored with "The 2007 Rock and Roll Lifetime Achievement Award" presented by the Hard Rock Cafe Cleveland. Last week, Bill Zildjian, of the Sabian Cymbal Company, and Vic Firth, of Vic Firth, Inc., have awarded Julian with full artist endorsements. In
