

Back to top

Charity Preview: Get Ready to Be Amazed!

The world's youngest drummer will help get things started at the upcoming Charity Preview, and attendees won't believe their eyes or ears. Julian Pavone, who began playing the drums on his father's lap at the age of three months, and is now seven, will kickoff the Friday, Jan. 13 ribbon-cutting ceremony with an incredible drum routine. Tickets for Charity Preview are $250 each and are on sale now. Click here to purchase tickets or call 888.838.7500. Charity Preview is being presented by RBS and Charter One.

Back to top

New for 2012: Michigan Hall Mobility Center

Michigan Hall will include a new exhibit that features innovative transportation options for persons whose lives are challenged by limited mobility. Called Michigan Hall Mobility Center, the exhibit will include products from OEMs and vehicle modifiers. Chrysler LLC Mobility and Toyota Mobility Program are just two of the exhibitors slated to participate. Chrysler will feature specially equipped Town & Country and Grand Caravan minivans. Toyota will showcase a 2012 Sienna with an Auto Access Seat, a wheelchair-accessible Sienna Rampvan, plus a 2012 Camry equipped with an exterior lift. For more information on the Michigan Hall Mobility Center, click here.

Back to top

NACTOY Finalists Announced in December

Finalists for the 2012 North American Car and Truck of the Year \(NACTOY\) will be announced on Thursday, Dec. 15. Earlier this month, the 50-member NACTOY jury revealed the short-list candidates — seven trucks and 17 cars. The 2012 NACTOY winners will be unveiled at the NAIAS on Monday, Jan. 9.

Back to top