Julian Pavone, the three year old drumming prodigy who is featured in the newest edition of Ripley’s Believe It or Not: The Remarkable Revealed, will be performing and signing books on October 27th , from 4 to 6 pm at the Telegraph and Maple, Bloomfield Hills, Michigan Barnes & Noble location.

Julian will be joined by legendary bassist Ralphie Armstrong, who has performed with artists such as Aretha Franklin and Herbie Hancock. Alex Raz, a 10-year old guitarist, and Vincent Fondale, an 8-year old vocalist, from the television production “Finding Julian’s Band”, will also be performing with Julian.

Julian’s talents were introduced to the world by William Winfield III, founder of United Drumline Entertainment, who auditioned and offered a contract to the drummer when he was only 15 months old!

With his solo debut 'Go Baby!' before his third birthday, Julian is probably the youngest artist with a solo record ever. Cubs season home opener, at the House of Blues, at the Cleveland Grand Prix Opening Ceremonies, and at the NBA semi-finals for the Detroit Pistons.

He has inspired a series of children's books, led to the formation of Harmonie Network (a national entertainment and music company), launched his own clothing line, had a Korean documentary produced about him, and received worldwide media coverage.

In February, he was honored with "The 2007 Rock and Roll Lifetime Achievement Award" presented by the Hard Rock Café. Bill Zildjian of the Sabian Cymbal Company, and Vic Firth of Vic Firth, Inc., have also awarded Julian with full artist endorsements.

For those interested, there will also be an opportunity to present remarkable talents to Ripley's for future consideration. For more info, visit: www.ripleys.com.
