4-year-old drummer featured on Povich show today

Tuesday, March 3, 2009 5:53 AM EST

From staff reports

Four-year-old Julian Pavone, dubbed “The World’s Youngest Drummer,” will be featured today as one of “Maury’s Most Talented Kids 2009.”

Julian is the son of Bernadino and Lisa Pavone of Bloomfield Hills.

Maury Povich’s show airs in the Detroit area at 3 p.m. on MyTV 20.

Also in March, Julian will perform at the University of Michigan Charity Dance Marathon and at the Ann Arbor District Library. In April, he’ll drum for Jerry’s Kids at Motor City Harley-Davidson’s 10th Annual Muscular Dystrophy Association Black-n-Blue Ball. In May, he’ll perform at the 6th Annual Stride and Ride for MDA and in June at MDA’s Summer Camp.

Last May, Julian also appeared on Oprah’s “The World’s Most Talented Kids” show, and on more than 100 news and television shows including “Good Morning America,” “Martha Stewart,” “Inside Edition,” “Good Company,” “Japan TV,” “FOX News Dayside,” MSNBC and WGN, and starred in a Korean documentary.
